

To the delegates of the Model UN 16 – 19/3 2009

We have now organised participants in the model UN into delegations, committees and issues (see file). Now it's time for the delegations to start the preparations.

Preparations

You should decide upon an identity for the model UN, appropriate for the country that you represent. Your identity can be for example "Ms Nambai Marazanye from Tanzania". This identity will be your role during the entire model UN. We ask you to send the names you have decided in your delegation, by the latest Friday the 13th of February. Send all identities in your delegation in one e-mail to viktoria.akerblom@falufri.se

You also need to prepare a suitable dress for the model UN. During the model UN respectful manners are required. More information about this you will find in the guidebook at: http://www.falufri.se/sv/det_har_ar_falufri/samverkan/fn-rollspel.aspx

Things to study

- General information about the nation you represent (policy/constitution, history, religion etc)
- Your nation's foreign policy; international relations and cooperation within organisations.
- Your nation's opinions in the issues that are dealt with during the model UN.

Texts to write

- One resolution concerning your issue in your committee. The resolution must be sent to Falu Frigymnasium by the latest on Friday the 6th of March to maria.pettersson@falufri.se
- Position papers (your nation's opinions) on all the issues in the model UN.
- Your opening speech (maximum 1 minute).

Information on how to write resolutions and opening speeches you will find in the guidebook at http://www.falufri.se/sv/det_har_ar_falufri/samverkan/fn-rollspel.aspx

All the texts are to be written in English. We would like to advice you to start writing well in advance since it takes quite a lot of time to find all the information you will need!
